

The JAPANESE JOURNAL OF HISTORY
OF PHARMACY, Vol. 36, No. 1 (2001)

CONTENTS

Review

- Tadakazu MURATA : Beginnings of the Study of Western Sciences, "Rangaku," in Kyoto and Osaka in Close Relations with the Edo School ..... 1

Lecture

Clinical Pharmacy, Pharmaceutical Education

- Yasufumi SAWADA : Social Significance of Pharmaceutical Education ..... 7

Originals

- Tatsuya BABA and Tadato TANI : Wood Creosote : A Historical Study and Its Preparation in Combination with Herbal Drugs ..... 10
- Shigeru SUGIYAMA : Metallurgic Drugs in Ancient Japan ..... 18
- Akira HATTORI : Camphor in the Edo Era (3) Fireworks ..... 27
- Jun MAKI, Masahiro MIKAMI, Shichiro MARUYAMA, Hiroshi SAKAGAMI and Masahiro KUWADA : Discovery of the Adult Schistosoma japonicum, a Causative Agent of Schistosomiasis in the Katayama Area of Hiroshima Prefecture ..... 32
- Mitsuo YAMADA : Transition of Japanese Societies Related to Clinical Chemistry
in the Mid-Showa Period (1955-1980) (Part 2) ..... 36
- Noboru OKADA : Invention of Gunpowder and Its Practical Use in Baozhu [爆竹]
during the Song Dynasty in China ..... 41

Notes

- Masao UCHIBAYASHI : The Coriander Story ..... 56
- Masao UCHIBAYASHI : Etymology of Ginger ..... 58

Biographies

- Tatsuo KOIKE : The Invisible Hand of God, Visible in the History of Chemotherapy ..... 61
- Masao UCHIBAYASHI : Forgotten Episodes of the Birth of Cortisone ..... 70
- Masao UCHIBAYASHI : The Nutmeg Story ..... 76
- Takaji KOYAMA : Kinoshita's Natural Colored Book of Medicinal Plants ..... 80