

The JAPANESE JOURNAL FOR HISTORY
OF PHARMACY, Vol. 39, No. 2 (2004)

CONTENTS

Plenary Lectures

- Shinoda AISHIN : The Naito Museum of Pharmaceutical Science and Industry
—From Foundation to Present—265
- Isao KITAGAWA : Pharmaceuticals from the Sea270

Originals

- Koko SASAKI and Toshiko KONDO : A 30-Year History of the Change in Package Insert
for Japanese Pharmaceutical Medicines276
- Akira HATTORI : Historical Study of a Moth Repellent, "Fujisawa Camphor" (4)
—Newspaper Advertisements for "Fujisawa Camphor" in the Meiji Era—286
- Noriko MIYAMOTO and Koji YAMAKAWA : Study on Analyzing the Trend of Employing Pharmaceutical Graduates in the Past 19 Years (1985-2003)292
- Koji YAMAKAWA : Reconsideration of Education and Research for Postgraduate Courses in Pharmaceutical Universities303
- Akira HATTORI : Historical Study of the Moth Repellent, "Fujisawa Camphor" (5)
—Quality Assurance and Consumers—315
- Shun-ichi UDAGAWA and Takashi TATSUNO : Safety of Rice Grains and Mycotoxins
—A Historical Review of Yellow Rice Mycotoxicoses—321
- Teruko NAKAMURA, Jiro ENDO and Kazushi TAMURA : Japanese Nonprescription Drugs (1)
"Pediatric Formulas" for Five Kinds of "Gan"343

Biographies

- Masao UCHIBAYASHI : Transformation of the Names of Certain Herbs by Linguistic Transfer
—Colchicum, Wormseed, Soybean, Nandina and Wijnruit—350
- Shigeru SUGIYAMA : Recognize Uncalia Ganbir355

Note

- Michinori KUBO, Hideaki MATSUDA, Norimichi TOMOHIRO and Shouichi HARIMA :
History and Therapeutic Evaluation of Citrus hassaku HORT. TANAKA363